

Amy C. O'Hara
aohara@littmankrooks.com

www.littmankrooks.com
www.elderlawnewyork.com
www.specialneedsnewyork.com

Areas of Practice

Special Needs Planning
Elder Law
Guardianships
Estate Planning
Administration of Estates & Trusts
Personal Injury Settlement Consulting

Bar Admissions

New York

Education

J.D., University at Buffalo Law School
B.S., Binghamton University

Professional Affiliations

Certified Elder Law Attorney (CELA)
Special Needs Alliance:
◆ Treasurer, Board of Directors
Westchester Disabled on the Move:
◆ President, Board of Directors
National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys
New York State Bar Association:
◆ Trusts & Estates Section
◆ Elder Law Section
Westchester County Bar Association
Estate Planning Council of Westchester

Amy C. O'Hara is a partner with the law firm of Littman Krooks LLP. Her practice is focused in the areas of elder law, estate planning and administration, trust administration, guardianships, special needs planning and personal injury settlement consulting.

Amy lectures to advocacy organizations and families on the importance of proper planning for families of children with special needs. She publishes articles relating to estate and special needs planning.

Amy is Certified as an Elder Law Attorney (CELA) by the National Elder Law Foundation and is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys.

Amy is Treasurer of the Board of Directors of the Special Needs Alliance, a national organization comprised of attorneys who practice law and advocate for people living with special needs and disabilities, the elderly, and their families. She is President of the Board of Directors of Westchester Disabled on the Move, Inc., a not-for-profit organization that aims to improve the quality of life and the rights for all people with disabilities.

She is a member of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA), Elder Law and Trusts & Estates Sections of the NYSBA, Westchester County Bar Association, and Mamaroneck-Harrison-Larchmont Bar Association.

Amy received her Juris Doctor degree from University at Buffalo Law School and received her Bachelor of Science degree from Binghamton University.

Amy is married and the mother of two teenage boys.

